Look out for the Red X Cross on your paper. It denotes that your time is up, and unless renewed at once the paper will stop coming.

Clay Lacy, of White Oak, Morgan county, is attending Hazel Green Academy.

Born—To the wife of Chapman Swango, Jan. 30, a girl—Mamie. Chap is very talkative.

Born—To the wife of I. W. Maple a son—Mason Virgil Maple. I. W. is in a very fine humor.

Rev. Mr. Hiden, of Jackson, preached at the Methodist church in this place on Friday and Saturday nights of last week.

Magistrates can get blank Warrants, Executions, and Replevin Bonds at this office at 25 cents per quire. Sent by mail on receipt of price.

Sunday will be the regular appointment for services at the Methodist church in this place, and the pulpit will be filled by the pastor Rev. W. T. Eklar.

W. J. Wallis and family, who have been living in Hazel Green for two years past, removed to Daysborough, which place they will make their future home.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt began a meeting at the Cuskey school house Saturday, with a good attendance and considerable interest manifested. The meeting will continue over next Sunday.

J. Z. Haney, of Daysborough, left Monday for Richmond, Ky., where he will enter Central University for the ensuing five months, and the best wishes of his many friends go with him.

Press Powers stopped in this place on Saturday night. He was en route to Georgia with a drove of horses, which, we believe, were the property of Milt Hager and John Gardner, of Salyersville.

Sick headache, wind on the stomach, biliousness, nausea, are promptly and agreeably banished by Dr. J. H. McLean's Little Liver and Kidney Pills. 25 cents a vial. Sold by G. B. Swango, Hazel Green.

Hon. D. S. Godsey and wife arrived here Saturday and will again make Hazel Green their home. On behalf of the citizens we welcome them to their old home, and hope they will continue to abide with us.

Uncle Bob Cummins, who returned from West Liberty on Sunday, tells us that notwithstanding the demonstrations in favor of a railroad, he understood there had been a petition sent to the Legislature with 600 names of citizens opposed to the vote.

A Harlan C. H. correspondent of the Fineville Messenger sends that paper the following item, which shows that "Our Seneca" is "getting there, Eh": Married—On the 9th inst., at the Kelly House, by Rev. S. X. Swimm, James M. Huff to Miss Isabelle Parsons.

Pat Punch, jailer of Mt. Sterling, passed through here Monday with two prisoners en route to Jackson. It is understood that the parties now on trial in the circuit court at the latter place, for the murder of Sewell, made some confession to the men Capt. Punch had in charge, and that the latter have been summoned to appear as witnesses in the case.

A special from Flemingsburg to the Cincinnati Enquirer, last Friday says: Alexander Pendulum, confined in jail here, working out a heavy fine for violating liquor laws and other offenses, was today taken by officers to Breathitt county to unravel a murder mystery in which Robert Frazier and Breck Flingburn are under indictment and waiting trial for alleged killing of Wm. Sewell. He claims to know every thing. The officers place entire confidence in his story, which he certainly makes very plausible. He is a thoroughly bad man.

A HAZEL GREEN SENSATION,

In Which Ira Clark, "The Lightning Rod Man," Plays a Prominent Part.

For several years this community has been over run with lightning rod men, and the consequence is that nearly every house in Morgan and Wolfe counties has been rodDED. Two years ago Ira Clark, the prince of the profession, married Miss Ella Jane Johnson, of this place, and settled here permanently. He occasionally visited other sections of the county to solicit orders, and to all appearances seemed to be doing a good business. People for whom he did business seemed well pleased with his work and he was building up a good trade. No one had ever questioned him as to where he purchased his supplies, and indeed no one cared so long as his work gave satisfaction. His honesty had never been doubted and he was fast building up a reputation as a good citizen, but on Friday evening last, two strangers appeared in Hazel Green. They had never been seen here before, not even by the proverbial "oldest inhabitant," and they created quite a scene at the little cottage home of said Clark and wife. As soon as they laid eyes on Clark, one of them put the question, "Old man, don't you want your house rodDED?" which showed a familiarity with the business and an acquaintance with the man they spoke to. Subsequently the people of the village were informed of their arrival and matrons, maids, girls, benedicts, bachelors, boys—everybody and everything in town hastened to honor the new guests, for behold—the happy mother had just given birth to the distinguished strangers, and they were so much like their daddy that one of them had to ask, "Old man, don't you want your house rodDED?" while the other appeared to be sizing up the house and figuring the cost—with two points and a weather vane free.

The mother is doing as well as could be expected, while Ira contemplates taking larger contracts, and will take in to partnership Roy and Claude, the gentlemen strangers above referred to.

Thousands of people suffer with back ache, not knowing that in most cases, it is a symptom of diseased kidneys and liver, which plasters and lotions cannot heal. The best and safest remedy is Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm. $1.00 per bottle. Sold by G. B. Swango, Hazel Green.

Buchanan Will Hang.

Governor Buckner on Thursday, Jan. 24th, issued the following:

"To the Sheriff of Wolfe county, Greeting: Know ye that whereas it has been made known to the undersigned, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, in the manner prescribed by law, that James Buchanan was convicted of the crime of murder in the Wolfe Circuit Court, and was by the judgment of said court sentenced to be hanged by the neck until dead, September 30, 1887. By reason of an appeal prayed by the said Buchanan to the Court of Appeals, the said judgment was not executed September 30 as aforesaid; that the said Court of Appeals being sufficiently advised found no error in the judgment of the said Wolfe Circuit Court, and therefore considered that the said judgment of the said Circuit Court be affirmed.

"Now, therefore, I, S. B. Buckner, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and bylaws of the said Commonwealth, do hereby fix Friday, March 2, A. D. 1888, as the day for the execution of the said judgment of the said Wolfe Circuit Court; and these are to command you, the Sheriff of Wolfe county, to take from the jail of Montgomery county and convey to the county seat of Wolfe county, the said James Buchanan, convicted of murder in the Wolfe Circuit Court; and between sunrise and sunset of the day last above written, hang him by the neck until he shall be dead; and you are commanded to execute the said judgment according to law in such cases made and provided, etc.

S. B. BUCKNER.

Frequently accidents occur in the household which cause burns, cuts, sprains and bruises; for use in such cases Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment has for many years been the constant favorite family remedy. Sold by G. B. Swango, Hazel Green.

W. S. Shackelford, formerly of this county, but now living at Thompson, Madison county, Arkansas, writes us under date of Jan. 18th, as follows: "Spencer Cooper—Sir: You will find $1.00 enclosed in this letter for the HAZEL GREEN HERALD one year. As I am writing back to my old home I will say we are having some cold, rough weather here now. The ground has been covered with snow ever since the 12th, which is very unusual for this country. Generally when a snow falls in this country it goes off in a day or two." F. W. Nestor writes us to send him THE HERALD to Mound Creek, Miami county, Kansas, and encloses fifty cents for a six months' trial.

Bob Nunnally, the perambulating prince of patron-hunters for Dunlap Bros. & Co., Louisville, wholesale saddles and harness, was in town this week and, as is always the way with him, sold J. T. Day & Co. a big bill of goods. Bob is a hustler from away back, and the day is so frigid that zero is hunting his hole when Bob gets left. Bob is of French extraction, and the name—Nunnally—comes from a Greek word which signifies none such. It is certain that there are not many who can compare with Bob as a commercial evangelist.

Jake Howerton, of White Oak, Morgan county, was in this place last Wednesday on business.

Dr. Dunn, our Swango Spring correspondent, says: Miss Lula Kash, of Hazel Green, was visiting her Grandpa Swango Saturday.....Miss Jennie Sharp is confined to her bed.....Rev. H. D. Hiden and wife are at Uncle Harry Swango's. Sister Hiden was quite ill, but is now improving.....Widow Oney was crossing Red River, Saturday, on a log, when she stepped on a limb which broke and precipitated her into the river. She lost her bonnet and gloves, but recovered the bonnet.

James A. Sangston, who was located at this place a few years ago connected with the War Department, and later general passenger agent of the Illinois Central Railroad, with headquarters at Memphis, Tenn., has been appointed general traveling agent of the Kalamazoo Car and Velocipede Company. Mr. Sangston's general acquaintance with the railroad fraternity and universal popularity insures for him success in his new undertaking.

Exposure to rough weather, getting wet, living in damp localities are favorable to the contraction of diseases of the kidneys and bladder. As a preventive, and for the cure of all kidney and liver trouble, use that valuable remedy, Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm. $1.00 per bottle. Sold by G. B. Swango, Hazel Green.

See the advertisement of C. F. Brower & Co. in this issue of our paper, and if you want to buy furniture at your own price go now and do so. Remember that this house is the largest furniture establishment in the West, and sell at prices which defy competition. It will pay you take a trip to Lexington now.

Sheriff G. T. Centers, of Wolfe county, in charge of a man named Ansell Smith, was here Wednesday night. They left Thursday morning for Frankfort, where the latter will serve a term of two years in the penitentiary for breaking into the house of a poor widow and robbing her. —Frenchburg Courier, Jan. 27.

When nature falters and requires help, recruit her enfeebled energies with Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. $1.00 per bottle. Sold by G. B. Swango, Hazel Green.

Math. West and Bob Cottle, of White Oak, Morgan county, passed through town last Wednesday on their return home from a trip to Ironton, Ohio, and points in Kentucky.

Mrs. John H. Pieratt has been quite ill for several days but is now convalescent.

Dr. F. M. Thomas, of Ezel, paid our town a short visit Wednesday.

Gillmore, January 30th.

Rev. E. P. Mickell is visiting at Rev. J. M. Little's.

James H. Vest has a very sick child. It has had several fits.

Mrs. Luther Graham has been sick for some time but is improving.

Jack Hollon (Santifee) is very low with pneumonia fever, and not expected to recover.

The writer visited the mouth of Hunting Creek on the 27th inst., and on his way passed three places where they were preparing to bury the dead.

Died—On the 26th inst., old Aunt Hannah Banks, as she is commonly called, of fever. She leaves a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss.

Well, Mr. Editor, I have a Bible riddle for your readers, which I think will interest some of your readers if not all of them. I think it eclipses that of the great prophet, and all who can solve it are requested to send their names to THE HERALD. It is this:

I was born without a soul,
Yet living was my frame,
The years of my life did pass away
And still I was the same.
Still the time did come that I,
A living soul, possessed of living active mind,
But when Gabriel's trumpet shall sound,
I in that number won't be found,
Nor with them raise my head.

This is not in so many verses in the Bible, yet it is in the Bible.

UNCLE REMUS.

Daysborough, January 28th.

Rev. W. L. Lacy, the county evangelist of the Christian church of Wolfe county, closed a meeting on the 18th at the Red River church, where he had great success. The church received twelve by baptism, six reclaimed and two from other churches. After closing the ten days' service at that place, he repaired to the Daysborough school house, where he was assisted by Rev. D. H. Fallen in a protraction of eight days with overwhelming results. The attendance increased day by day, and so did the conversions, and we were again made to believe that the "Gospel is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth," for we saw it fully demonstrated. Having had two meetings each day since the beginning they closed out on Friday night with seventeen additions by baptism and four by restoration—still, leaving the interest that was being taken in the cause just at the zenith of its glory. But as the Evangelist was very much exhausted he started for home to take some recreation, after which he is going to hold a series of meetings at the Antioch church on Devils creek.

THIRD, RACE & UNION STREETS, Cincinnati.

Since our last issue our people have been very anxious in regard to the amendments of the proposed railroad charters, C. K. & W. and C. & S. A., and we are now informed that an agreement has been made which will be satisfactory to all concerned by which the charters will be amended, allowing this county to vote upon a tax not exceeding $150,000 to be taken in stock for the constructing of the C. K. & W., $75,000 to be issued in county bonds when the road reaches this city from Newport or Covington, and $75,000 to be issued when the line is completed to a point which may be designated east of here. Also not exceeding $125,000 for the extension of the K. & S. A., said bonds to be issued when this road shall have been completed to Jackson, Breathitt county.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

Disease Cured Without Medicine.

A MARVELOUS INVENTION FOR HEALING THE SICK AND CONQUERING THE PAIN.

A Valuable Discovery for supplying Magnetism to the human system. Electricity and Magnetism Utilized as a Power Before for Healing the Sick.

We wage no warfare against physicians or the medical fraternity generally. Their efforts of usefulness is large and we desire to aid them in furnishing auxiliary means for curing the sick. The honest physician occupies a high place in public esteem and deservedly so, too. While our appliances are not a panacea for every ill they are what we claim for them and will afford a speedy cure oftentimes after medicines have failed to give relief.
